From the Pastor

13th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Dear Sisters and Brothers,

The days are so beautiful, and school has finished for children, vacations are ahead of us. I wish everyone good rest and the grace to make it good family time. I hope as well, that we all will get closer to The Lord through the beauty of those summer experiences. God bless everyone !!!

As I mentioned in the last bulletin, we will continue our Sunday 5:00 pm Mass through the summer, with opening it to be celebrated with the Baptisms, so to give families the options of being at the Mass on Sunday and have the Baptismal celebration on the same day. So if you make the 5:00 p.m. Mass on Sunday your option for summer, be aware that you will be experience this beautiful welcoming Sacrament for these children and their families.

This Summer brings us some more changes, as you remember last Sunday we invited you all for the reception after the 9:00 am Sunday Mass today, to express our best wishes for Father Christopher Mirabal, as he is moving this week to his new assignment. He will be in our prayers and we wish him a fruitful assignment. I want to thank him for all the good that he had shared with us in many ways; Sacramental and human interactions. Thank you Fr. Chris, and God bless You always !!!

Next Sunday we will welcome Fr. Victor who will be arriving from the Dominican Republic to take assignment as an Associate Priest in our Parish, and our friend Fr. Milciades who will be visiting over the Summer, once again.

Once more, I want to thank our cleaning crew, for doing a great job with the floor of our church. It really makes a difference to look at it, and to pray in this improved environment. As I said, it was all done by volunteers and I thank each one of them !!! If you couldn't do it, don't feel bad, you may do something else, just ask me and I will find you something to do. Or you may pray for intentions of our parish, or you may make a bigger contribution to our parish for the needed improvements that we will realize one by one. I thank you all for your continual support. Without your support we can do nothing.

In the Gospel of today we see the way Jesus was mistreated on his way to Jerusalem, but he did not wanted to let this hostile people be hurt by the Apostles, Jesus just went further to the next village where he was welcomed. Jesus is not forcing himself to enter into our life, if we find excuses to avoid him, he goes to the person that is welcoming and caring, so let us make sure that we act with God in a way that is welcoming, so that God can abide wit us.

Than we see in the Gospel, how personable Jesus is, and how different answers he gives to the people that approach him, but all life challenging answers. Let us be ready for that challenge from Christ, and he does not seem to be politically correct at all. Jesus does not tell people what they want to hear, but he tells them what is good for them. Do we believe that ??? Do we look for the answers to our life situations in the words of the Bible, or we just search for what seem convenient for us ??? When Elijah anointed Elisha it changed all his life, it gave him different purpose and new ways to live it, do we really want to be given " the portion" of Elijah's spirit ???, or it would be too much for us to be partners with God, called to do his work.

Saint Paul tells us that Christ made us free by forgiving us our sins, do we know how to live in that new freedom, away from our selfish ways ??? Do we know how to enjoy that freedom of belonging to Christ ??? Let us love our neighbor as ourselves he tells us, so let us contemplate in what way we are treating others, is it the way we desire to be treated by them ??? Jesus said to one person, " No one who sets a hand to the plow and looks to what was left behind is fit for the kingdom of God". Lord make us generous of spirit in holding on to you, and following you looking ahead to the promises that you have for those who love you. Amen !

God bless You all, and all your loved ones !!!

Fr. Stan

5th Annual Fortnight For Freedom: Witnesses to Freedom Designated by the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops

"On his visit to the U.S., Pope Francis encouraged us to nurture, promote, and defend the precious gift of religious freedom. To this end, the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops has continued to encourage Catholics, other Christians, and all people of good will to set aside two weeks to reflect on religious freedom." Archbishop William E. Lori, Archdiocese of Baltimore Catholics for Freedom of Religion along with the Diocese of Rockville Centre are most honored to welcome Archbishop Lori as the keynote speaker at the June 27 Rally for Religious Freedom. See details below.

As Catholics and Americans, striving to be good and faithful servants, we are called to prosper the gift of free will. To do that, we must learn the meaning of conscience rights and recognize the forces denying that right. We must learn our Constitution's unique protection of conscience and not passively yield them to placate a secular culture. Only then can we answer every attack on religious liberty in our community, state and country. The deliberate erosion of respect for Christians, for religious practices and deeply held beliefs has brought unimagined and liberty-crushing cultural and political changes.

Would you risk your own life, fortune and sacred honor to defend this right of religious freedom? Would you make it a priority to pray, learn and teach others to love and preserve religious liberty?

Archbishop Chaput has said, "If lay people don't love their Catholic faith enough to struggle for it in the public square, nothing the Bishops do will finally matter"

Bishop William Murphy points out, "Today we are the witnesses. We will pray and we will speak. We will act together and invite others to join us. Our cause is a cause that is great and a truth that cannot be vanquished."

Ne soyez pas timides, répondez a l'appel du Christ pour mieux vous intégrer dans votre Paroisse.

Jésus, donne-nous le courage de te suivre.

Selon la première lecture, Dieu suggéra a Elie de designer Elisée pour assurer la continuité de sa mission de prophète. Le geste d'Elie est chargé de signification. Il invite Elisée a endosser bien plus que son manteau, sa responsabilité de prophète, de porte-parole de Dieu pour son peuple. Elisée comprit qu'un tel appel, parce qu'il émanait de Dieu lui-même, lui imposait de tout quitter. Voilà qui éclaire le passage de l'Evangile de Luc où nous voyons Jésus convier plusieurs personnages a le suivre sur-le-champ. Ayant pris résolution la route de Jérusalem, le maître n'hésite pas a brusquer ses interlocuteurs. L'anonymat de ces "appelés" permet a chacune nous de s'appliquer a soi-même l'exigence de Jésus. Une vie selon l'Evangile ne souffre ni demi-mesure ni atermoiement. Nous consacrons du temps et des ressources a ce qui est important et urgent pour nous. Jésus nous dit aujourd'hui et urgent de choisir. Qui veut appartenir au Christ doit être prêt chaque jour a risquer sa vie pour lui.
