Dear Sisters and Brothers,

It is hard to believe, that we are 16 years into the war on terror initiated by the 9/11/2001 attacks of Islamic terrorists, that changed the course of human history into aggression after aggression by many violent attacks that claimed many lives and injured thousands if not millions of people affected by wars and outbursts of violence. Who could count how many Islamic terror attacks happened in the world since 9/11? We know that they are countless. That continual war changed forever the way we live and think, the way we travel and look at other people. It made us distrustful and reserved, uncertain and vulnerable, unbelieving and sad that such things keep happening. Where did the humanity get from the goals of human solidarity and commitment to peace and development.?

For me as polish national, it is forever inscribed in my polish mind the date of 9/01 that refers to year 1939 when the 2nd World War started by Germany attacking Poland. It brought death and devastation to countless millions of people around the whole world. It changed human history forever, yet we see it didn't make humanity to learn the lesson, we continue the wars as if we didn't have enough of devastation and destruction. I guess it's preferred topic for Hollywood and electronic games - violence and destruction. The world didn't learn lessons from 9/01/ 1939 and didn't learn them either from 9/11/2001.

Our culture and humanity values are in decline, not speaking about the decline of faith and morality as we see the world overtaken by relativism and privet interest. The world is more selfish and self centered, without forgetting that there are a lot of good and holy people, but the manipulation of culture and politics are driven by selfish people. That, leads us to where we are in Brentwood, we have our own SEPTEMBER MEMORIAL, when on the evening of 9/13 and than on evening of 9/14/ 2016 the bodies of two girls, Nilsa and Kayla were found, and what lead to further finding of bodies and gang violence victims. It is hard to believe that it is only a year from those fatal happenings. It feels like years of history past by, but it is only a year in real time. For the families that suffered the loss of their children it must feel like decades of pain and unbelief that their kids are not with us anymore.

My impression is that it is for so long that it is happening, especially that the number of victims was multiplied and it builds up into this place of unsolved pain, that doesn't seem to go away. As we approach those sad September Memorials, we continue to pray for the victims, may their sacrifice inspire us to better our community and our families, may it open our eyes to the reality of our youth and children being affected by street violence and school bullying and peer pressure to conform to certain trends, strange to the faith and family values.

We offer our prayers, sympathy, and help for the families directly affected by those tragic events. As a parish and community, let us search for ways to make more space and give more attention to our children and youth, proposing new ways to make them involved in church and community life. Lord help us to transform this September Memorials into life lessons, so that we would not have to repeat them again. Do you have solutions to those problems ? Let's pray and do what we can to continue to educate our children and youth.

On September 14th is as well the Feast of the Exultation of the Cross, and on the 15th is the feast of Our Lady of Sorrows. Is that coincidence? When will we finish the lessons of The Cross? Or when will we begin it ? It is a crucial lesson for our lives and this is why the feast of the Blessed Mother is right next to it, as She and The Cross are inseparable. Do we want to be inseparable from the Blessed Mother and from the Cross? What is the meaning of The Cross for our lives ? What is our cross and how do we carry it? Do we really have to learn the lesson of the Cross in our lives? Is there Resurrection without The Cross? How come that happiness stands next to the cross?

It is incomprehensible to the human mind, it is called the paradox of the Gospel, something that is opposed in itself. stands together. Life and death. Light and darkness. Beginning and end. Suffering and happiness.

Today's Gospel speaks about the brotherly correction. Yes, we need to correct each other when we make mistakes or we make something wrong, but first of all we need to make sure that we are right where we supposed to be. The example speaks much louder than words, which supported by love can make the whole difference. The Gospel ends with the promise: " For where two or three are gathered together in my name, there am I in the midst of them."

Let's take that promise and stand by each other always, so we will have the Lord on our side in whatever we do, so maybe than we will be able to understand and support each other in all circumstances of life. Let's pray together as we have common needs, hopes and goals.

May God bless all who carry the crosses in their lives, and may we all be able to stand by them with compassion and love.

God bless everyone !!!

God bless Brentwood !!! God bless Saint Anne's !!!

ROCKVILLE CENTRE, N.Y. – August 28, 2017 –The Most Reverend John O. Barres, Bishop of the Roman Catholic Diocese of Rockville Centre, today asked for prayers and a special collection be taken in the parishes of the Diocese of Rockville Centre during the weekend of September 2-3, 2017 or September 16 -17, 2017, to assist those in the Gulf Coast region suffering from the after affects of Hurricane Harvey. “We join in prayer and solidarity with all those who have been and continue to be impacted by Hurricane Harvey,” said Bishop Barres. We pray for the victims and their families during this tragic time. We also pray for the heroic first responders and rescue personnel, some now coming from our own diocese to aid and assist, that our mother Mary wraps them in her mantle and protects them as they save others. We also ask the parishioners of the Diocese of Rockville Centre, still feeling the effects of Superstorm Sandy, if they are able, to help our brothers and sisters in Christ down south.” To contribute to the Diocese of Rockville Centre’s Hurricane Harvey Fund, parishioners are asked to contact their local parish or they can send a donation to the Finance Office, Diocese of Rockville Centre, P.O. ### Statement from Bishop John O. Barres on DACA decision:

The Diocese of Rockville Centre stands in unison with the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB) in its position seeking the continuation of the Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals program (DACA). The USCCB, along with the Diocese of Rockville Centre, believes that the dignity of every human being, particularly that of our children and youth, must be protected. Today’s decision makes clear the need to promote and pursue comprehensive immigration reform in our country. Following the recent pastoral visit to our diocese by Cardinal Rosa Chavez, we will continue to be present to our beautiful Hispanic community and in solidarity with them.

APPEAL

Labor Day is an opportunity to take stock of the ways workers are honored and respected. As Pope Francis pointed out, "Work is fundamental to the dignity of a person. . . . It gives one the ability to maintain oneself, one's family, to contribute to the growth of one's own nation."

For many people, especially for the poor, who may be unemployed or underemployed, the struggle to support their families is a daily battle. Please consider supporting the Catholic Ministries Appeal which supports the programs and services that assist families and individuals struggling in our communities.

L'amour et la justice

"L' accomplissement parfait de la Loi, C'est l'amour", dit saint Paul aux Romains. On a souvent oppose la justice a la charité. Paul, a la suite du Christ, montre que la charité (l'Amour) ne supprime pas le devoir de justice, mais le suppose accompli: Respecter son frère:" Tu ne tueras pas"; respecter sa réputation:" tu ne feras pas de faux témoignage", respecter son foyer:" tu ne seras pas adultère", respecter ses biens:" tu ne voleras pas, tu ne convoiteras pas ce qui lui appartient, tout cela se résume a l'aimer.

Mais si nous pouvons assez facilement nous dire quittes de nos devoirs de justice, selon la formule connue:" Je n'ai pas tue, ni vole", nous savons bien que nous restons toujours en dette ce qui concerne l'amour fraternel. On n'a jamais pleine accompli la Loi.
