25th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Dear Sisters and Brothers,

Last Sunday in the Gospel we learned from Jesus, that forgiveness is not an option for the Christian, but it is a necessity. Only by forgiving that we are forgiven, and by forgiveness that we are saved. It is a difficult lesson because sometimes we don't know how to forgive - always. It feels so difficult, but we know, that it is the only way to God. Saint John Paul II wrote an Encyclical - God is rich in Mercy. God always forgives the one that is repented. His Mercy is infinite.

Today, Jesus is teaching us about generosity of God, that goes beyond what human mind can capture, but it is perceived by a loving heart. It is in nature of God to be generous beyond human measure, to be generous infinitely, as He is infinite. The treasury of God's gifts never gets empty, He always has more to give. It is not difficult for us to understand it, but it is impossible for us to imitate it. God's giving is based on God's wisdom, He gives us what we need and not what we want. Jesus speaks of the owner of the vineyard who wants to provide generously for all workers, he wants to provide what is necessary for their families, but that generosity is perceived by other workers as injustice. They aspired to receive more, beyond what they agreed to work for. From human perspective it was making sense, but it was not based on their own personal relationships with the owner, it was based upon comparing themselves to other workers, those coming at later hours. If the payment would come from the first to the last, they would have never realized what had happened, and they would not be scandalized by the generosity of the owner.

Comparing ourselves to others is not the best way of growing in relationship with God. Comparing could be good if we were seeking to grow in holiness, but comparing that is coming from pride and jealousy is damaging for us. It can be deadly for our relationships with God and with others. The purpose of our lives is not in accumulation of material prosperity, but in developing our relationship with The One, that is the source of our being and of all others. That relationship has to be personal, and is not based upon what others do and have, but upon our own responding to the opportunities that the Lord lays open before us. Our sense of justice regarding our relationship with the Lord, has nothing to do with what others have or do. What others do, it may be affecting us, but only to show what attitude we have in front of others, and what motivates our actions and lives. It shows our holiness and nobility of our hearts.

God's relationships are motivated by love, and the highest form of love is Mercy. Mercy is the greatest extent of love, it is the greatest form of generosity. Generosity that is only human, can be damaging to the growth of the human person, as we see with children who get spoiled by having not to work for what they need, than they learn to pretend to be maintained by the giver to the point of being damaged as persons, by not developing their own skills of life and true personhood. Material over gifting may have negative consequences for human growth and personal development. It fosters false vision of life for someone, who didn't mature yet to what life is about. We see it over and over again, that material wealth does not bring necessarily happiness, it may be destructive.

God's generosity is always about giving us what we need, but our human perspective easily gets focused on material side, without seeing the spiritual. What can one gain from conquering the whole world and losing one's own soul? Whatever we have, should bring us closer to God and to others. Whatever others have should never separate us from God. We all need a healthy relationship with the First Giver, the giver of all things among which our being, and our relationship with God are our most precious. If anything should destroy these two, it is not good for us, it is not good for our soul. Our having material things should not separate us from God and from others, and our giving should bring us closer to God and to others.

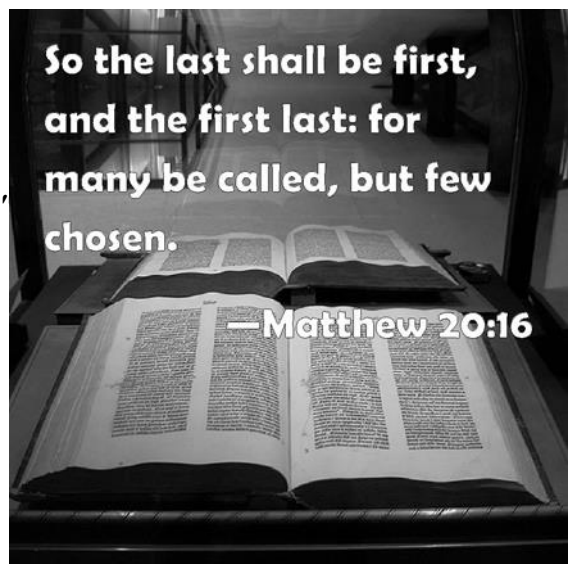

As Saint Theresa said

God alone is enough for us, if we have God we have everything.'

Thank You for your generosity last week for the hurricane victims, may God bless You and may the Lord help all the victims to rebuild their lives.

God bless everyone !!!

Fr. Stan

St. Anne's Ministry of Consolation

St. Paul teaches that when one person in the community suffers, so do we all. Thus, at the time of the death of a loved one, we minister to the grieving family through the Ministry of Consolation.

Contact is made and an invitation is extended to the family to join with our Ministry intake person, to prepare for the Mass of Christian Burial.

Family members are invited to choose the readings and music for the Mass and are encouraged and supported through out the entire preparation of this final process of burial in celebration of their loved one.

All are invited to consider being a part of this Ministry, either as a Intake Person, Acolyte or Greeter for the Mass by calling the St. Anne's Parish Center at 631-273-8113.

Come be the face of St. Anne's to a grieving family.

Come be the face of God in their time of need.

Labor Day is an opportunity to take stock of the ways workers are honored and respected. As Pope Francis pointed out, "Work is fundamental to the dignity of a person. . . . It gives one the ability to maintain oneself, one's family, to contribute to the growth of one's own nation."

For many people, especially for the poor, who may be unemployed or underemployed, the struggle to support their families is a daily battle. Please consider supporting the Catholic Ministries Appeal which supports the programs and services that assist families and individuals struggling in our communities.

OUTREACH

The generosity of the parishioners of St. Anne Parish allows us to reach out to people in our Brentwood/Bay Shore neighborhood who struggle every day to make ends meet.

Thank you to all who donate to our food pantry. During August 2017, we were happy to assist 168 families, 27 seniors, 238 adults and 254 children. We also helped 33 new families.

Our school supply drive was very successful. We were able give school supplies to 85 families for their children to start the 2017-2018 school year. We had a very generous donor who gave us more than 80 backpacks filled with school supplies. Thank you to her and to all who gave to this yearly drive.

Our anonymous donor also assisted in filling our pantry shelves with $1500.00 of food and toiletries. We are so grateful for her generous donation.

Toiletries are always appreciated by our clients. Here are the items most needed: toilet paper, tissues, paper towels, shampoo, conditioner, body wash, soap, deodorant, toothpaste, shaving cream, disposable razors, diapers (size 4 & 5), baby wipes, feminine hygiene products, pet food and laundry detergent.

There is a box in our church near the statue of St. Anne for you to drop off your donated items.

Thank you for caring for the poor in our parish community.

Il semble que Jacques vise les dissensions et les rivalités qui existaient entre les chrétiens, entre riches et pauvres, mais aussi entre les gros propriétaires et les riches négociants que sa lettre prend souvent à partie. La soif de s'enrichir justifie pour eux l'emploi de tous les moyens y compris la violence et le meurtre. C'est cette convoitise inscrite au fond de l'homme qui est génératrice des guerres, des injustices, du mal. Au contraire, qui se laisse modeler par Dieu est artisan de paix, car celle-ci se construit dans la droiture, la tolérance, la justice qui est son fruit le plus précieux. Qu'il est difficile d'être petits à la suite de Jésus. Alors que Jésus marche vers La Croix, ses disciples reviennent de grandeur. Cinglante ironie de Marc à l'égard des rêves de grandeur et de prestige qui se font jour dans sa communauté chrétienne alors qu'elle prétend honorer un Messie crucifié!
