The Feast of the Holy Family of Jesus, Mary and Joseph

Dear Sisters and Brothers,

Once more I want to thank all for helping with preparations for Christmas, all musicians, cantors, servers, acolytes, ushers, decorators and cleaning volunteers, Deacons and teachers, book wrappers and all who helped in any way. We thank Santa and Mrs Claus, Marge and all staff, for making it a special time. I thank you all for your generosity to the Parish and to the needy of our parish through your Outreach support, and all the gifts donated to our Giving Tree Project, and to Janet and all volunteers for processing all that was given. I can't thank you enough, God bless everyone !!!

God bless all generous donors to Catholic Ministries Appeal, for reaching our goal, so that we would receive a rebate of 20 %. I thank all those who donated to our parish for Christmas Flowers, and your Christmas Gift to your church collection. Thank You all !!!

We are at the end of the year 2017, and it's last day today. We thank you Lord for all the blessings of this past year and for much good that happened. Now we admit that it was a fast year. Days were filled with many good things that we were partaking of, as well as in some difficult and some terrible and disastrous moments the world went through. Many children were born and many people have died. Joys mixed with sadness, happiness with grief. Each of us could make a list of both: good and bad things that happened for our personal lives, for Parish, for our country and for the world. We all enjoyed the good things, but we wish some bad things should have never happened.

So much of events were nature driven and we couldn't change it except with our prayers, but many events were human invented, and it is so sad that so much evil could have been avoided if people would have good will.

This is where we need our Savior, where we need Christ to save us from all evil, because we cannot save ourselves. Come Lord Jesus and save us, save the whole world. Be born in the hearts of all people and cast away from us the darkness of our sins. Jesus we need You to save us from ourselves and our weakness, from our sins. This is why we need to celebrate Christmas, is to open our hearts and lives to Emmanuel, so that God truly can stay with us.

The Sunday after Christmas the Church celebrates Holy Family, reminding us how essential to Jesus coming was presence of Mary and Joseph, with their lives totally dedicated to Christ. On the base of seeing their importance for Christ, we realize how Jesus expects us to collaborate with him in saving the world. Mary and Joseph are the perfect example for us, how to defend and support conceived life, how to make Christ's mission one's own. Mary's and Joseph's lives were totally dedicated to Christ as they protected Him, they lived for Him all their lives. They mutually needed each other to accomplish God's plan of salvation, God's will. This is how essential it is for us to be attentive to the needs of our family members. It is together that we accomplish God's plan, that we find our dignity and calling.

As we end this old year today, we entrust our plans and projects to the patronage of the Holy Family: Jesus, Joseph and Mary. May we know how to work together and support each other in accomplishing God's will in our lives in this coming year. Happy New Year to everyone !!!

God Bless You and all your loved ones in all You need spiritually and materially. May he give You good health and prosperity, may God give You joy and peace accomplishing God's will in your life. May You have satisfaction at your work and especially in your family and personal life.

Happy New Year !!!

God bless You always !!!

From the Deacon's Bench

By Deacon John

“...Good King Wenceslas looked out, on the Feast of Stephen...” Many of us know that Christmas Carol, that tells of the Good King of Bohemia who braved a harsh winter storm to bring presents, food and warmth to his poor subjects the day after Christmas.

It's no wonder that the Church celebrates her proto (first) martyr, St. Stephen on the first day after the celebration of the Messiah, December 26th. St. Stephen was one of the seven men selected by the Church to become those who “waited on tables” so that the Apostles could attend to prayer the “ministry of the Word”. These seven men were prayed over and had “hands imposed on them”, becoming the first Ordained Deacons.

St. Stephen is a special patron for Deacons. As with all patron saints, we Deacons look to St. Stephen's life as a model for us. Stephen was a man who heard the message of new life and salvation in Jesus Christ, and gave himself entirely to this new life. His decision to give himself totally to Jesus Christ came at a cost. Like all things in our lives that mean something, Stephen's decision to follow Jesus meant that he had to embrace a new way of life, new customs and new ways of thinking. Embracing Jesus meant saying goodbye to some friends and family. Stephen's decision to accept Jesus' life as his own, eventually cost him his life.

During a persecution of the followers of Jesus, who were thought to be heretics, Stephen was stoned to death by a crowd of people under the direction of a certain man named Saul from the sea side city of Tarsus. Saul himself was to come to know the new life and salvation available through Jesus, and become St Paul. But that's another story for another Deacon's Bench article. There are three distinct “Orders” in our Church: Episcopal (Bishop), Presbyter (Priest) and Deacon. All Bishops are Deacons, but not all Deacons are Bishops!

For many centuries the Order of Deacon had remained a “step” toward the Priesthood. Following the Second World War, several Bishops began discussing the idea of restoring the Order of Deacon to its prior place and having men, married or not, ordained to serve. This was given the unofficial title of the “Permanent” Diaconate, to differentiate it from the “Transitional Diaconate” that signifies those men who would continue toward Priesthood. For clarity, there is NO difference in the Ordination Ritual/Rite or the Grace received for the newly ordained, “Permanent or “Transitional”. The Permanently ordained Deacon is most often, at least in the USA, married, with a family, over 35 years old, and working. Transitional Deacons are often, much younger and of course, unmarried, and continuing their studies and formation towards Priestly Ordination. Since the Diaconate has been restored as “Permanent” Order, in the Church, St. Anne's has had Deacons as part of our Church life. Once the Diocese restored the Office of Deacons, men have been going to the seminary for years of study and formation, culminating in the Celebration of Ordination our Bishop.

Deacons like Tom Samson, Jay Alvarado, Andres Colpa all continue in the steps of St Stephen. Of course we cannot forget all the other Deacons who served our Parish either Jerry Hanlon, Frank Iovino, Juan Diaz, Miguel Romero and Max Severe...we are indebted to them. Someone asked me once, “what is it that you can do as a Deacon”? Technically, being a Deacon is not about what we “can or can't do”. Being a Deacon is not a matter of the things we are able to do, but it's really who we are. As a deacon, we are deacons all the time. We are deacons at Church, at work and at home. Our ministry, is service. Deacons are called to be servants. To serve the church. To serve you, because you are the Church. Many Deacons in our diocese serve as Chaplains' in jail, hospitals, as business managers in parishes, outreach directors, or in a hundred other places. Because all Deacons work or are retired from their life's work, they bring experience to their Parish to assist their Pastor in the mission of the local church. Deacon Andreas for example, in addition to all his Sacramental work is our IT guy who has been instrumental in upgrading our sound system in church, because of his everyday work life as a technical expert in media. Once Ordained by the Bishop the deacon is usually given faculties that he is able to exercise: Celebrating Baptisms, witnessing Marriages, conducting Wake services, Celebrating Liturgy of the Word services, Preaching at Mass, blessing people and objects, bringing Viaticum to those who are dying, and what ever else the Pastor needs!

Deacons are Ordained for the Diocese, and as such can be transferred depending upon needs of the diocese. Although the practice of Deacon transfers has been rare in our Diocese, this is changing. Like our Brother Priests, Deacons usually have a 5 year term, and then can be transferred. This will be more common in this next few years.

The everyday life of the Deacon is not easy. Balancing home and work and church can be tough. Often the Deacon's family has to be put on the back burner as ministry to the People of God is needed. Our Wives and children are not often thought of by those who see the Deacon at Mass. Yet without the support of our Wives and families who give us support and assistance, we Deacons could not fulfill the call from God.

So during this Christmas season, remember that your Deacons remain here to serve. You, your family our beloved Church, here at St. Anne's and the Universal Church are in our daily prayers. Please then, remember us in your prayers that we will live to the standard of St. Stephen.

L' exemple de Nazareth

Nazareth est l'école ou l'on commence à comprendre la vie de Jésus: l'école de l'Evangile. Ici, on apprend à regarder, à écouter, à méditer, et à pénétrer la signification, si profonde et si mystérieuse, de cette très simple, très humble et très belle manifestation du Fils de Dieu. Ici, à cette école, on comprend la nécessité d'avoir une discipline spirituelle, si l'on veut suivre l'enseignement de l'Evangile et devenir disciple du Christ. Comme nous voudrions redevenir enfant et nous remettre à cette humble et sublime école de Nazareth, comme nous voudrions près de Marie recommencer à acquérir la vraie science de la vie et la sagesse supérieure des vérités divines. Une leçon de silence d'abord. O silence de Nazareth, enseigne-nous le recueillement, l'intériorité, la disposition à écouter les bonnes inspirations et les paroles des vrais maîtres; enseigne-nous le besoin de et la valeur de la prière que Dieu seul voit dans le secret. Une leçon de vie familiale. Que Nazareth nous enseigne ce qu'est la famille, sa communion d'amour, son austère et simple beauté, son caractère sacré et inviolable; apprends de Nazareth comment la formation qu'on y reçoit est douce et irremplaçable; apprends-nous quel est son rôle primordial sur le plan social. Une leçon de travail, Nazareth, maison du fils du Charpentier, c'est ici que nous voudrions comprendre et célébrer la loi sévère et rédemptrice du labeur humain, rétablir la conscience de la noblesse du travail.
