1ST SUNDAY OF ADVENT

Dear Sisters and Brothers,

How blessed we are with the beautiful season of weather just perfect, some rain and more sunshine. So easy to transit from fall to winter, from old year to new year. We just ended our liturgical year, we culminated the season with Thanksgiving and the Feast of Christ the King of the Universe. The only missing part is that we don't see Jesus yet face to face, so we cry out-

Come Lord Jesus !!!

Now we will be using year B for our Sunday cycle readings with the Gospel of St Mark and the starting team of Advent is the Second coming of Christ. His glorious coming is awaited by all believers who long to experience full presence of God in their lives. So the First Reading from the prophet Isaiah puts almost pressure on God to come and manifest himself with power and might, so as to turn people's attention from selfish ways. The prophet confesses our human need for God's involvement in molding "the work of your hands." The Psalm continues that cry by stating: "Lord make us turn to you; let us see your face and we shall be saved." If only God would show us his face than we would follow, it almost makes God responsible for peoples response.

Saint Paul's approach to Christ is one of great faith. His full conviction of Christ's love and closeness leaves no room for doubt or uncertainty. Paul knows, that Christ blessed us with all graces and spiritual gifts needed for us to wait for His coming. We are saved by faith in Christ and nothing else matters, there is nothing that would separate us from his love.

In the Gospel of today, Jesus invites us to watch and be alert for he is coming surely. Each one is left in charge with "his own works", to do the right thing. It is encouraging, that Jesus is not putting any extra charges on our shoulders, but tells us to do what was entrusted to us, and that would be good preparation for his coming. Just peaceful realization of our daily tasks and duties as believers, and that is a good way to wait for Jesus coming.

Often the thought of Christ coming causes anxiety, but the end of times and his glorious coming is to be a feast. It is the realization of our faith. It will be time of glory. After we accomplish the mission in this world, we are called to the feast of heaven. Our life on earth is just but a preparation for that feast. As apostle John says: "perfect love casts away all fear", because it finds its rest in the One that loved us first. So both Apostles; John and Paul emanate this same confidence of love because of their experience of it. Even though their experiences were so different, yet they led them to this same confidence and trust in God. St Paul says in the letter to Corinthians: "love bears all things, believes all things, hope all things, endures all things. Love never ends".

So this is where our faith in Christ takes us. That unconditional love of God, is the love that the Saints found in the depths of their hearts, and this is what you and I need to learn and acquire in our lives. This is the depth of faith we pray for. This is what Advent moves us to hope for, and we perceive it, as we see the works of God in our lives and in the life of the world.

Come Lord Jesus !!! Show us your face and we shall be saved.

As we see the change of colors in the church to purple, it is sign of our humble expectation for salvation. We see our Giving Tree ready for those who wish to share the joy of knowing Christ with others. As we await for his coming, let us take his advice and be about our daily business of life, doing well what was entrusted to us, and that should bring us to the place of encounter with coming Christ. Thank You for your generosity to our Parish and to the needy.

*Come Lord Jesus !!!
God bless everyone !!!!*

Fr. Stan

Stop by our Giving Tree and take a tag to help someone less fortunate than you this year. Giving makes everyone feel the spirit of Christmas!

El Adviento y sus testigos.

Comenzamos hoy el Adviento, este tiene "sus testigos": Los profetas, Juan El Bautista, María y José. Pensemos por un momento en una madre que espera el nacimiento de su hijo, así está la Iglesia...el Adviento es "una alegre espera". El silencio de José es también otro ejemplo, Él también está a la expectativa de lo que va a suceder, lo suyo es una actitud. Cuál es la nuestra??? Los profetas nos anuncian que hay caminos, cada uno de nosotros debe buscar un sendero, hay más de uno: Oración, Conversión, Generosidad...Cual es el tuyo???

La Liturgia nos puede ayudar a hacer ese ambiente propicio (al menos en el Templo), el morado, la austeridad, las Lecturas de la misa., también, la Corona de Adviento, cada domingo encenderemos una vela indicando que la Navidad se acerca. El Evangelio de este I Domingo de Adviento, nos presenta la actitud de "un portero" atento a la llegada de su Señor, estemos atentos para que ese momento privilegiado no pase para nosotros desapercibido. En medio de tanto ruido, compras, etc., tomémonos un momento para la contemplación.

Christ-Roi

Pour clore l'année liturgique, la lecture qui a été choisie et que nous allons entendre, c'est cette grande fresque du jugement dernier. Une épisode évangélique très connue. Le dessein de Dieu, de toute éternité, est de nous donner en partage le Royaume, de nous le préparer et de nous proposer d'y entrer. A nous d'accueillir cette proposition, a nous d'entrer dans ce Royaume qui s'est dévoilé a nos yeux tout au long de cette année liturgique. Il y a une manière de vivre, une manière d'être qui est un certain oubli de soi pour être attentif aux besoins des autres. Ces hommes et ces femmes n'avaient conscience de servir le Christ en servant les autres. Mais ils ont été attentifs aux besoins de ceux qui étaient autour et c'est bien cela qui est mis en valeur par Jésus. Il ne s'agit pas de faire attention aux autres parce qu'ils sont représentants du Christ. Il n'y a rien de plus intolérable que de dire a quelqu'un que nous l'aimons en Jésus Christ. Cela signifie concrètement que l'homme n'existe pas pour elle-même, en elle-même. Il s'agit d'aimer l'autre dans sa singularité et d'être attentif a ses besoins. Ces hommes et ces femmes, a la droite du Roi, ont été attentifs aux autres en donnant a boire, en donnant des vêtements, mais aussi en donnant de leur temps pour visiter les malades et les prisonniers.
