Dear Sisters and Brothers,

On August 6th we had celebrated the Feast of Transfiguration, when Jesus presented himself to Peter, James and John, transfigured in his glory and talking in the cloud with Moses and Elijah. Then the voice spoke from heaven: “this is my beloved son listen to him” (Matthew 17:5). Similarly in our lives God wants us to make the experiences of Mount Tabor, those mystical moments, those moments of transfiguration that would carry us over in other times. Times of trouble, times of desert, times of suffering and times of hunger.

The whole proclamation of the Gospel, is a revelation of God’s glory and of God’s love for us, but in the human extent of Jesus’ life, it is a time of preparation for the scandal of the cross. It is only after Jesus lost his life, and after the three days of darkness of the tomb, that the fullness of Jesus’ glory is revealed in his resurrection. It was after the resurrection, that Jesus told his three disciples, to talk about what they have seen in the transfiguration. In that time, it was all going to make better sense, and give all the events a better meaning.

As we ponder the theme of bread of life in the readings of this Sunday, we realize that Jesus is doing a similar thing, trying to reveal to us those hints of glory, that are hidden in the mystery of the transubstantiation in the Eucharist. He talks to us about two different worlds that coexist simultaneously, that is our visible world of now, and that of the invisible world of eternity. Jesus wants our hearts and minds to be open to both of those realities always, because they both condition each other. The eternal love and power of God becomes visible in here and now, and then it goes again into the eternity by becoming a thing of past, that through the power of faith we can make visible again in here and now.

The first Eucharist, that was celebrated by Jesus in the past, through faith becomes present to us here and now, but in Jesus’ reality it brings us to the future of eternity with God. As St John says: “we will become like God, because we will see him as He is, eternal in heaven” (1 John 3:2). We all need to ponder in our minds and in our hearts what it means: to rise from the dead, and what it means: to eat the bread from heaven that lasts forever.

Jesus wants each one of us to experience his transfiguration, to perceive his glory and to participate in it by faith now, and in the reality of heaven forever after. We can say with the disciples: “Jesus give us this bread always, so that we may not hunger” (John 6:24-35). This is what it means to satisfy our hearts, minds, bodies and souls, to make us happy for eternity starting from now and today.

When did you see some hints of God’s glory in your life? In the beauty of the nature, in the beauty of another person, in the kindness or in the suffering of someone? When did you see Jesus Transfiguration before you, were you ever invited by him into the intimacy of his glory? Try to open your mind and heart to see it. If you didn’t, it is most probably because of your worldliness, your lack of faith and self-centeredness that’s holding you back, that makes you see only the things of this world that are passing, but what about those that last forever? Do you believe in: forever? Does it make a difference in your life?

Lord, I thank you once more for the Feast of St Anne, for all the people preparing, donating, helping, serving and enjoying it. It was a hint of your love in action, it was a hint of your glory seen on the faces of people. It was a hint of Transfiguration, it was a moment of transformation for those who let themselves be transformed by faith, love in the action of service. I thank everyone for sharing in the feast, for being the hint of God’s glory to others.

God bless everyone always!!! Bless our Parish!!! Saint Anne, pray for us!!!

Fr. Stan

Queridas Hermanas y Hermanos,

El pasado 6 de Agosto celebramos la fiesta de la Transfiguración, cuando Jesús se presentó a Pedro, Santiago y Juan, transfigurado en su gloria y arrodillado en la nube con Moisés y Elías. Entonces se oyó una voz del cielo: “Este es mi Hijo amado, escuchadlo”. De la misma manera, Dios quiere que en nuestra vida hagamos las experiencias del Monte Tabor, esos momentos místicos, esos momentos de transfiguración que nos transportaran a otros tiempos. Tiempos de tribulación, tiempos de desierto, tiempos de sufrimientos y tiempo de hambre.

Todo el anuncio del Evangelio es una revelación de la gloria de Dios y de su amor por nosotros, pero en la dimensión humana de la vida de Jesús, es un tiempo de preparación para el escándalo de la cruz. Solo después de que Jesús perdió su vida, y después de los tres días de oscuridad del sepulcro, se revela la plenitud de la gloria de Jesús en su resurrección. Fue después de la resurrección que Jesús les dijo a sus tres discípulos que hablaran sobre lo que habían visto en la transfiguración. En ese momento, todo tendría más sentido y todos los acontecimientos tendrían un significado mejor.

Al reflexionar sobre el tema del pan de vida en las lecturas de este Domingo, nos damos cuenta de que Jesús está haciendo algo similar, tratando de revelarnos esos indicios de gloria, que se esconden en el misterio de la transustanciación en la Eucaristía. Nos habla de dos mundos diferentes que coexisten simultáneamente, es decir nuestro mundo visible de ahora y el mundo invisible de la eternidad. Jesús quiere que nuestros corazones y mentes estén siempre abiertos a ambas realidades, porque ambas se condicionan mutuamente. El amor eterno y el poder de Dios se hacen visibles en el aquí y ahora, y luego vuelven a la eternidad convirtiéndose en algo del pasado, que a través del poder de la fe podemos hacer visible de nuevo aquí y ahora.

La primera Eucaristía, que fue celebrada por Jesús en el pasado, a través de la fe se hace presente para nosotros aquí y ahora, pero en la realidad de Jesús nos lleva al futuro de la eternidad con Dios. Como dice San Juan: “seremos como Dios, porque lo veremos tal como es, eterno en el cielo”. Todos necesitamos reflexionar en nuestra mente y en nuestro corazón que significa resucitar de entre los muertos y que significa comer el pan del cielo que permanece para siempre.

Jesús quiere que cada uno de nosotros experimente su transfiguración, que perciba su gloria y participe de ella por la fe ahora, y en la realidad del cielo para siempre. Podemos decir con los discípulos: “Jesús, danos siempre este pan, para que no tengamos hambre”. Esto es lo que significa saciar nuestro corazón, mente, cuerpo y alma, hacernos felices por la eternidad a partir de ahora y de hoy.

¿Cuándo viste algunos indicios de la gloria de Dios en tu vida? ¿En la belleza de la naturaleza, en la belleza de otra persona, en la bondad o en el sufrimiento de alguien? ¿Cuándo viste la Transfiguración de Jesús ante ti? ¿Te invito alguna vez a la intimidad de su gloria? Trata de abrir tu mente y tu corazón para verla. Si no lo hiciste, es muy probablemente debido a tu mundanalidad, tu falta de fe y tu egocentrismo que te frena, que te hace ver solo las cosas de este mundo que son pasajeras, pero ¿Qué pasa con las que duran para siempre? ¿Crees en la eternidad? ¿Hace una diferencia en tu vida?

Señor, te doy gracias una vez más por la Fiesta de Santa Ana, por todas las personas que la prepararon, donaron, ayudaron, sirvieron y disfrutaron. Fue un indicio de tu amor en acción, fue un indicio de tu gloria vista en los rostros de las personas. Fue un indicio de la Transfiguración fue un momento de transformación para aquellos que se dejaron transformar por la fe, el amor en la acción del servicio. Doy gracias a todos por compartir la fiesta, por ser el indicio de la gloria de Dios para los demás.

!! Dios los bendiga a todos siempre!!! Bendice nuestra Parroquia!!! Santa Ana, ruega por nosotros!!!

Ft. Stan

Domingo XIX Domingo Ordinario

Pbro. Rodrigo Acosta, Paraguay

Queridos hermanos y hermanas en Cristo:

Hoy, las lecturas nos hablan de la confianza en la providencia de Dios y la vida plena que encontramos en Cristo. En la primera lectura, Elías, cansado y desalentado, recibe el sustento necesario para continuar su misión. Esto nos recuerda que, incluso en nuestros momentos de mayor dificultad y cansancio, Dios nos provee lo que necesitamos para seguir adelante.

El Salmo nos invita a experimentar la bondad de Dios. “Haz la prueba y verás qué bueno es el Señor”. Nos llama a reconocer y agradecer que todo lo bueno en nuestras vidas proviene de Él. En nuestro día a día, esta gratitud y reconocimiento nos ayudan a mantenernos firmes en la fe, sabiendo que Dios siempre está a nuestro lado.

San Pablo nos anima a vivir de acuerdo con el amor de Cristo, despojándonos de la amargura y vistiendo la bondad y el perdón. En nuestras relaciones y acciones diarias, somos llamados a reflejar este amor, buscando la unidad y la paz en nuestras comunidades y familias.

Finalmente, en el Evangelio, Jesús se presenta como el Pan de Vida. Al recibir la Eucaristía, nos unimos a Él, quien nos da la fuerza y la vida eterna. Este sacramento es nuestro alimento espiritual, que nos sostiene en la fe y nos impulsa a vivir como verdaderos discípulos.

Hoy, al recibir la Eucaristía y al enfrentar nuestras propias luchas, pidamos a Dios la gracia de experimentar su bondad y de vivir de acuerdo con el amor de Cristo. Que podamos encontrar en Él la fortaleza para seguir adelante y ser luz en el mundo.

Que Dios los bendiga y les conceda paz y fortaleza.

Amén.

19eme Dimanche Du Temp Ord. B(8/11/2024)

Moi, je suis le pain de vie

La première lecture de ce dimanche est une excellente introduction au discours de Jésus sur le «pain de vie». Le prophète Elie, fuyant l'hostilité de la reine Jézabel, marche toute une journée dans le désert.

Élie traverse une crise profonde. Élie a un moment de faiblesse. Il s'agit de fatigue personnelle, mais plus encore du désir d'abandonner la lutte face à la persécution religieuse de son peuple.

Dieu redonne alors au prophète le soutien spirituel et corporel dont il a besoin. Ici le texte rejoint celui du «pain de vie» : «Lève-toi et mange, Après avoir mangé le pain offert par Dieu, la fuite d'Élie se transforme en pèlerinage à la source de la foi d'Israël. Au pied du Mont Sinaï, il découvrira Dieu comme il ne l'a jamais connu auparavant, «dans le souffle d'une brise légère», un Dieu de tendresse et de bonté. Élie est bien semblable à chacun de nous lorsque la défaite, l'adversité, la maladie nous atteignent.

C'est alors que Dieu s'approche et nous offre le pain nécessaire à la longue marche dans le désert. Notre fuite peut alors devenir un pèlerinage, une route qui nous conduit à la source de la vie.

Élie était un grand prophète. Il avait été adulé, célébré, L'ange du Seigneur lui apporte la nourriture nécessaire pour survivre dans sa longue marche en lui disant : «Lève-toi et mange, car autrement le chemin serait trop long pour toi.» Il y puisera la force de marcher quarante jours et quarante nuits jusqu'au mont Sinaï. Dans l'évangile, Jésus ajoute : «Moi, je suis le pain de vie... si quelqu'un mange de ce pain, il vivra éternellement.»

Élie découvrira le vrai visage de son Dieu, dont la toute-puissance est celle de l'amour et «de la douceur d'une brise légère».

À nous comme au prophète, Dieu offre le pain du ciel, le pain de vie, qui nous aide à marcher jusqu'au bout, à nous rendre jusqu'à la montagne du Seigneur. Chaque fois que nous nous approchons de la table eucharistique, le Seigneur nous rappelle qu'il est le pain vivant qui donne force et courage pour la longue route à faire. «Lève-toi et mange, car autrement ta route sera longue»

OUTREACH

The generosity of the parishioners of St. Anne Parish allows us to reach out to people in our Brentwood/Bay Shore neighborhood who struggle each day to make ends meet. Thank you to all who generously donate to our food pantry. During June 2024, we were happy to assist 252 families, 85 seniors, 365 adults and 248 children. We also helped 14 new families.

Here are some items we need this month: soup, rice, cereal, peanut butter, jelly (small jars), juices, toilet paper, tissues, paper towels, shampoo, conditioner, body wash, soap, deodorant, toothpaste, toothbrushes, shaving cream, disposable razors, diapers (size 4, 5 & 6), baby wipes, feminine hygiene products, pet food and laundry detergent. Gift cards for Gala, Aldi, ShopRite, Target, Stop & Shop and Walmart are always appreciated.

If you are interested in volunteering at our outreach, please call me 631-339-7470.

Thank you for caring for the poor in our parish community.

Janet Lambert, Outreach Director
