Message from the Our Pastor— Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe

Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe!

This Sunday the Church brings the liturgical year to a close with the Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe. Next Sunday we begin Advent and a new year of grace. It is fitting that the year ends with this proclamation: Jesus Christ is Lord of all—of history, of creation, of every human heart.

Pope Pius XI instituted the feast in 1925 with the encyclical Quas Primas. In the aftermath of World War I and amid rising secularism and nationalism, the Pope wanted the Church to affirm publicly that true peace and order come only when individuals and societies submit to the rule of Christ. Originally placed on the last Sunday of October, the feast was later moved to the final Sunday of Ordinary Time so that the entire liturgical year culminates in the kingship of Jesus and looks forward to His return in glory.

The readings for Year A present Christ as both Shepherd and Judge. In the first reading, the Lord God declares through the prophet Ezekiel: "I myself will look after and tend my sheep… The lost I will seek out, the strayed I will bring back, the injured I will bind up, the sick I will heal." This is the heart of Christ's kingship—not domination, but tender care for the weak and scattered. Psalm 23 responds with the familiar and comforting words: "The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want."

Saint Paul, in the second reading, looks to the final victory. Christ has been raised as the firstfruits of those who have fallen asleep. He must reign until He has put all enemies under His feet—the last enemy being death—and then hand over the kingdom to the Father, "so that God may be all in all."

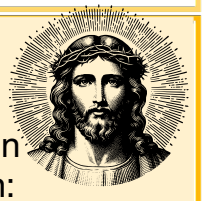

The Gospel (Matthew 25:31-46) shows us the King seated on His glorious throne at the end of time. He separates the nations as a shepherd separates sheep from goats. The criterion is simple and searching: "I was hungry and you gave me food, I was thirsty and you gave me drink, a stranger and you welcomed me, naked and you clothed me, ill and you cared for me, in prison and you visited me." To those who served the least of His brothers and sisters, the King says, "Come, you who are blessed by my Father. Inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world." To those who ignored them, He says the opposite.

Christ's throne is not a throne of worldly power. His crown was of thorns. His royal garment was the blood of the Cross. He reigns by self-emptying love. To acknowledge Him as King of the Universe is therefore not primarily a matter of words or ceremony. It is a matter of daily conversion: allowing His rule of mercy, justice, and compassion to shape how we treat the hungry, the lonely, the immigrant, the sick, the imprisoned, and all who are vulnerable.

As we celebrate this solemnity, let us renew our allegiance to Christ the King. May He reign in our minds through truth, in our wills through holiness, and in our hearts through love. And may He find us, at the end of our lives and at the end of time, among those who recognized Him in the least of His brothers and sisters. "Thy kingdom come." God bless everyone always!!!

Solemnidad de Nuestro Señor Jesucristo, Rey del Universo

Este domingo la Iglesia concluye el año litúrgico con la Solemnidad de Nuestro Señor Jesucristo, Rey del Universo. El próximo domingo comienza el Adviento y un nuevo año de gracia. Es muy adecuado que el año termine con esta proclamación: Jesucristo es el Señor de todo: de la historia, de la creación y de cada corazón humano.

El Papa Pío XI instituyó esta fiesta en 1925 con la encíclica Quas Primas. En el contexto posterior a la Primera Guerra Mundial y ante el avance del secularismo y el nacionalismo, el Papa quiso que la Iglesia afirmara públicamente que la verdadera paz y el verdadero orden solo llegan cuando las personas y las sociedades se someten al reinado de Cristo. Originalmente se celebraba el último domingo de octubre; más tarde se trasladó al último domingo del Tiempo Ordinario para que todo el año litúrgico culmine en la realeza de Jesús y mire hacia su regreso en gloria.

Las lecturas del Año A presentan a Cristo como Pastor y como Juez. En la primera lectura, el Señor Dios declara por medio del profeta Ezequiel: «Yo mismo buscaré a mis ovejas y las cuidaré… Buscaré a la oveja perdida, traeré a la descarriada, curaré a la herida y sanaré a la enferma». Este es el corazón de la realeza de Cristo: no la dominación, sino el cuidado tierno de los débiles y de los dispersos. El Salmo 23 responde con las palabras familiares y consoladoras: «El Señor es mi pastor, nada me falta».

San Pablo, en la segunda lectura, contempla la victoria final. Cristo ha resucitado como primicia de los que han muerto. Debe reinar hasta poner a todos sus enemigos bajo sus pies —el último enemigo es la muerte— y entonces entregar el reino al Padre, «para que Dios sea todo en todos».

El Evangelio (Mateo 25,31-46) nos muestra al Rey sentado en su trono de gloria al final de los tiempos. Separa a las naciones como un pastor separa las ovejas de los cabritos. El criterio es sencillo y exigente: «Tuve hambre y me disteis de comer, tuve sed y me disteis de beber, fui forastero y me hospedasteis, estuve desnudo y me vestisteis, enfermo y me visitasteis, en la cárcel y vinisteis a verme». A los que sirvieron a los más pequeños de sus hermanos, el Rey les dice: «Venid, benditos de mi Padre; tomad posesión del reino preparado para vosotros desde la creación del mundo». A los que los ignoraron, les dice lo contrario.

El trono de Cristo no es un trono de poder mundano. Su corona fue de espinas. Su manto real fue la sangre de la Cruz. Él reina por el amor que se entrega.

Reconocerlo como Rey del Universo no consiste principalmente en palabras o ceremonias. Es cuestión de conversión diaria: permitir que su reinado de misericordia, justicia y compasión transforme la manera en que tratamos al hambriento, al solo, al inmigrante, al enfermo, al preso y a todos los vulnerables.

Al celebrar esta solemnidad, renovemos nuestra adhesión a Cristo Rey. Que reine en nuestra mente por la verdad, en nuestra voluntad por la santidad y en nuestro corazón por el amor. Y que nos encuentre, al final de nuestra vida y al final de los tiempos, entre aquellos que lo reconocieron en los más pequeños de sus hermanos. «Venga a nosotros tu reino». Bendiciones a todos siempre!!!

P. Stan

Solemnidad de Nuestro Señor Jesucristo, Rey del Universo
Oración para el boletín parroquial – Parroquia Santa Ana

Señor Jesús, Rey del Universo, hoy te reconocemos como el centro de nuestra vida y el dueño de nuestro corazón. Tu reino no se construye con poder, riquezas ni privilegios, sino con amor, misericordia, justicia y servicio.

Tú eres el Buen Pastor que sale a buscar a la oveja perdida, que cura a la herida, fortalece a la débil y acompaña a quien se siente solo. Gracias porque nunca te cansas de buscarnos y porque tu bondad y misericordia nos siguen cada día.

Enséñanos, Señor, a reconocer tu rostro en los más pequeños: en el hambriento que espera alimento, en el sediento que necesita ayuda, en el extranjero que busca acogida, en el enfermo que desea compañía y en el preso que anhela una palabra de esperanza.

Que nuestra fe no se quede solamente en palabras, oraciones o celebraciones, sino que se transforme en gestos concretos de amor. Que sepamos abrir nuestras manos, compartir nuestros bienes, ofrecer nuestro tiempo y acercarnos con ternura a quienes más nos necesitan.

Señor Jesús, reina en nuestras familias, en nuestra comunidad de Santa Ana y en cada rincón de nuestro mundo. Que nadie se sienta olvidado, rechazado o abandonado entre nosotros.

Al concluir este año litúrgico, ayúdanos a revisar nuestro corazón y a preguntarnos si estamos viviendo como verdaderos ciudadanos de tu Reino. Que nuestras obras hablen de nuestra fe y que cada persona encuentre en nosotros un reflejo de tu amor.

¡Jesús, Rey de amor y misericordia, reina en nuestros corazones! Que un día podamos escuchar de tus labios aquellas palabras llenas de esperanza: «Vengan, benditos de mi Padre, reciban el Reino preparado para ustedes».

Amén.

Le Christ, un Roi qui règne par l'amour (11/22/2026)

Frères et sœurs bien-aimés,

Aujourd'hui, nous célébrons la solennité de Notre Seigneur Jésus-Christ, Roi de l'Univers.

Mais une question se pose : quel genre de Roi est Jésus ?

Dans notre monde, un roi est souvent associé au pouvoir, à la richesse, à l'autorité et aux honneurs. Mais Jésus nous présente une autre manière de régner.

Dans la première lecture, le prophète Ézéchiel nous présente Dieu comme un berger qui prend soin de ses brebis, qui cherche celle qui est perdue, qui soigne celle qui est blessée et qui fortifie celle qui est faible.

Voilà le cœur de notre Roi : un Roi qui prend soin de son peuple.

Dans l'Évangile, Jésus nous révèle comment nous serons jugés : « J'avais faim, et vous m'avez donné à manger ; j'avais soif, et vous m'avez donné à boire ; j'étais un étranger, et vous m'avez accueilli. »

C'est extraordinaire ! Jésus s'identifie aux pauvres, aux malades, aux prisonniers et aux personnes oubliées de notre société.

Cela signifie que nous ne pouvons pas prétendre aimer le Christ si nous fermons les yeux sur la souffrance de nos frères et sœurs.

La royauté du Christ ne se manifeste pas d'abord dans les palais, mais dans les gestes simples de notre vie quotidienne : un sourire, une visite à une personne seule, une parole de réconfort, un repas partagé, un pardon donné.

Frères et sœurs, célébrer le Christ-Roi, ce n'est pas seulement proclamer qu'il est le Roi de l'Univers. C'est aussi lui permettre de devenir le Roi de notre cœur, de nos familles et de nos actions.

Alors, posons-nous cette question aujourd'hui : Si Jésus venait à notre rencontre dans une personne pauvre, malade ou abandonnée, saurions-nous le reconnaître ?

Que le Christ, notre Roi, nous donne un cœur rempli d'amour, de compassion et de miséricorde.

Amen !

The generosity of the parishioners of St. Anne Parish allows us to reach out to people in our Brentwood/Bay Shore neighborhood who struggle every day to make ends meet.

Thank you to all who donate to our food pantry. During October 2026, we were happy to assist 327 families, 125 seniors, 434 adults and 311 children. We also helped 21 new families.

For Thanksgiving, we will be giving our pantry clients extra food for their Thanksgiving meal. We graciously accept any donated food items to help during this season of giving. For Thanksgiving, we need canned black beans, soups, pasta, juices, cereals, gravy, stuffing mix, chicken or turkey broth, snacks, cake mixes and pies. Gift cards for local grocery stores are also appreciated. If you would like to sponsor a family, please see the attached form. Please call our outreach office if you have any questions 631-339-7470.

Toiletries are always appreciated by our clients. Here are the items most needed: toilet paper, tissues, paper towels, shampoo, conditioner, body wash, soap, deodorant, toothpaste, diapers (size 4, 5 & 6), baby wipes, feminine hygiene products, pet food and laundry detergent.

Thank you for caring for the poor in our parish community.

THANKS GIVING TABLE BLESSING

Lord of all blessings, from You has come a full harvest of gifts to us. With our uplifted hearts, we come today around this table to give thanks to You.
We are grateful not only for the gifts of our very lives, but for all the gifts of friendship, love, devotion and forgiveness that we have shared.
On this Thanksgiving and this day of giving thanks, we thank you for showing us how to return thanks by lives of service, by actions of hospitality, by kindness to others and by concern for each other.
We are most grateful, today, for the way You, our unseen God, has become visible to us in one another, both in our families and our friends in countless daily gifts and in the marvels of creation itself.
Come, Lord of Gifts, Bless our table and all the food of this feast.
Let us thank the Lord today and all days.
Amen

BENDICIÓN DE LA MESA DE ACCION DE GRACIAS

Señor de todas las bendiciones, de Ti nos ha llegado una cosecha llena de dones. Con nuestros corazones elevados, venimos hoy alrededor de esta mesa para darte gracias.
Estamos muy agradecidos no sólo por los dones de nuestras vidas, sino por todos los regalos de amistad, amor, devoción y perdón que hemos compartido.
En este día de acción de Gracias y ser día de dar gracias, te damos gracias por mostrarnos como devolver las gracias por la vida de servicio, acciones de hospitalidad, amabilidad hacia los demás y por la preocupación por el prójimo.
Estamos muy agradecidos, hoy, día en la forma, que tú nuestro Dios invisible, se ha hecho visible para nosotros en el prójimo, tanto, en nuestras familias como en hecho nuestros amigos en innumerables dones diarios y en las maravillas de la creación.
Ven, Señor de dones, bendice nuestra mesa hoy y todos la comida de este banquete
Danos gracias al Señor hoy y todos los días. Amen
