Message from the Our Pastor— First Sunday of Advent

First Sunday of Advent

Today the Church begins a new liturgical year. The violet vestments, the Advent wreath, and the quieter tone of the liturgy all signal that we have entered a season of watchful waiting. Advent is not simply a countdown to Christmas. It is a time of longing and readiness—for the celebration of Christ's first coming in Bethlehem and for His final coming in glory.

As we begin this sacred season, we also carry in our hearts the gratitude of Thanksgiving, which we celebrated just a few days ago. In the midst of family gatherings, shared meals, and moments of reflection, many of us paused to give thanks for the blessings of the past year. That spirit of gratitude finds a natural home in Advent, for the season itself is marked by thankful hope: we thank God for the gift of His Son already given, even as we wait for His coming again.

The prophet Isaiah gives voice to the deep ache of God's people: "Oh, that you would rend the heavens and come down!" He acknowledges how far we have wandered, how our hearts can grow hard, and yet he never loses confidence in the One who remains our Father and Redeemer. "We are the clay and you the potter: we are all the work of your hands." This is the posture Advent invites us to recover—humble dependence, honest recognition of our need, and confident trust that God still shapes us.

Saint Paul writes to the Corinthians with quiet assurance. God has already enriched them with every spiritual gift as they wait for the revelation of our Lord Jesus Christ. "He will keep you firm to the end… God is faithful." The waiting is not empty. Grace is already at work. The same God who called us into fellowship with His Son continues to sustain us until the day of His coming.

In the Gospel, Jesus speaks with urgency: "Be watchful! Be alert! You do not know when the time will come." He compares the situation to a master who leaves home and places his servants in charge, each with his own work. The gatekeeper is ordered to stay awake. The Lord may return in the evening, at midnight, at cockcrow, or in the morning. The command is simple and universal: "What I say to you, I say to all: Watch!"

Advent asks us the same question the Gospel places before us: Are we awake? Or have the distractions, routines, and anxieties of daily life lulled us into spiritual sleep? Watching does not mean anxious scanning of the horizon. It means living each day with purpose and readiness—doing the work entrusted to us, remaining faithful in the ordinary, and keeping our hearts turned toward the Lord who is always near.

As we light the first candle of the Advent wreath, we pray for the grace to stay awake. May this new liturgical year find us more attentive, more hopeful, and more ready to welcome Christ—whether He comes in the quiet of Christmas night or in the glory of the final day. Maranatha - Come, Lord Jesus.

God bless everyone always!!!

Fr. Stan

Primer Domingo de Adviento

Hoy la Iglesia comienza un nuevo año litúrgico. Los ornamentos violetas, la corona de Adviento y el tono más sereno de la liturgia nos indican que hemos entrado en un tiempo de espera vigilante. El Adviento no es simplemente una cuenta regresiva hacia la Navidad. Es un tiempo de anhelo y de preparación: para celebrar la primera venida de Cristo en Belén y para su venida definitiva en la gloria.

Al comenzar esta estación sagrada, llevamos también en el corazón la gratitud del Día de Acción de Gracias, que celebramos hace solo unos días. En medio de reuniones familiares, comidas compartidas y momentos de reflexión, muchos de nosotros hicimos una pausa para dar gracias por las bendiciones del año que termina. Ese espíritu de gratitud encuentra un lugar natural en el Adviento, porque esta estación está marcada por una esperanza agradecida: damos gracias a Dios por el don de su Hijo ya entregado, mientras esperamos su regreso.

El profeta Isaías expresa el profundo anhelo del pueblo de Dios: «¡Ojalá rasgaras los cielos y bajaras!». Reconoce cuánto nos hemos desviado, cómo nuestros corazones pueden endurecerse, y sin embargo no pierde la confianza en Aquel que sigue siendo nuestro Padre y Redentor. «Somos el barro y tú nuestro alfarero: todos somos obra de tu mano». Esta es la actitud que el Adviento nos invita a recuperar: una dependencia humilde, el reconocimiento sincero de nuestra necesidad y la confianza segura de que Dios sigue modelándonos.

San Pablo escribe a los corintios con una serena certeza. Dios ya los ha enriquecido con todo don espiritual mientras esperan la revelación de nuestro Señor Jesucristo. «Él los mantendrá firmes hasta el final… Dios es fiel». La espera no es vacía. La gracia ya está actuando. El mismo Dios que nos llamó a la comunión con su Hijo continúa sosteniéndonos hasta el día de su venida.

En el Evangelio, Jesús habla con urgencia: «¡Estén atentos! ¡Vigilen! No saben cuándo llegará el momento». Compara la situación con un hombre que se va de viaje y deja a sus siervos encargados de la casa, cada uno con su propio trabajo. Al portero le ordena que vigile. El señor puede regresar al atardecer, a medianoche, al canto del gallo o al amanecer. El mandato es sencillo y universal: «Lo que les digo a ustedes, se lo digo a todos: ¡Vigilen!».

El Adviento nos plantea la misma pregunta que el Evangelio nos dirige: ¿Estamos despiertos? ¿O las distracciones, las rutinas y las preocupaciones de la vida diaria nos han adormecido espiritualmente? Vigilar no significa escanear ansiosamente el horizonte. Significa vivir cada día con propósito y disponibilidad: cumplir el trabajo que se nos ha confiado, permanecer fieles en lo ordinario y mantener el corazón orientado hacia el Señor que siempre está cerca. Al encender la primera vela de la corona de Adviento, pedimos la gracia de permanecer despiertos. Que este nuevo año litúrgico nos encuentre más atentos, más esperanzados y más preparados para acoger a Cristo, ya sea en la quietud de la noche de Navidad o en la gloria del día final. Maranatha - Ven, Señor Jesús. Dios los bendiga siempre!!! P. Stan

ORACIÓN PARA EL PRIMER DOMINGO DE ADVIENTO

Parroquia Santa Ana

Señor, Padre bueno, al comenzar este tiempo de Adviento, despertamos nuestro corazón para recibirte con fe y esperanza. No permitas que nos acostumbremos a vivir distraídos, olvidando que Tú vienes constantemente a nuestra vida. Como el profeta Isaías, te suplicamos: ¡Ven, Señor, y no tardes! Somos barro en tus manos; moldéanos con tu amor y transforma todo aquello que nos aleja de Ti. Señor, Pastor de tu pueblo, vuelve tu mirada hacia nosotros, ilumina nuestros hogares y fortalece nuestras familias. Muéstranos tu favor y sálvanos de la indiferencia, del egoísmo, de las divisiones y de la falta de amor. Gracias porque, como nos recuerda san Pablo, nunca nos faltan tus dones ni tu fidelidad. Enséñanos a vivir confiados en tus promesas, mientras esperamos la venida de tu Hijo. Que este Adviento nos encuentre despiertos, vigilantes y con las lámparas de la fe encendidas. Ayúdanos a descubrirte en la oración, en tu Palabra y en cada hermano que necesita nuestra cercanía. Que nuestra comunidad de Santa Ana sea una Iglesia acogedora, solidaria y llena de esperanza. ¡Ven, Señor Jesús! Renueva nuestra vida, bendice nuestras familias y haz de nosotros instrumentos de tu paz.

Amén.

Isaiah 63:16b-17, 19b; 64:2-7
1 Corinthians 1:3-9
Mark 13:33-37
premier dimanche de l'Avent. (11/29/2026)
Veillez, soyez prêts, le Seigneur vient !
Frères et sœurs bien-aimés,
Aujourd'hui, nous commençons une nouvelle année liturgique avec le temps de l'Avent. C'est un temps d'attente, d'espérance et de préparation à la venue de notre Seigneur Jésus-Christ.
Dans l'Évangile, Jésus nous adresse une invitation très claire : « Prenez garde, restez éveillés, car vous ne savez pas quand ce sera le moment. »
Mais que signifie veiller ? Est-ce simplement attendre quelque chose ? Non ! Veiller, c'est vivre chaque jour avec un cœur ouvert à Dieu. C'est ne pas laisser la routine, les soucis, la peur ou les distractions nous éloigner de lui.
Dans la première lecture, le prophète Isaïe exprime un profond désir : « Ah ! Si tu déchirais les cieux, si tu descendais ! » C'est le cri d'un peuple qui attend Dieu, qui a besoin de sa présence et de sa miséricorde.
Et saint Paul, dans la deuxième lecture, nous rappelle que Dieu est fidèle et qu'il nous donne sa grâce pour rester fermes dans notre foi.
Frères et sœurs, l'Avent n'est donc pas seulement une préparation à Noël. C'est aussi une invitation à préparer notre cœur pour accueillir Jésus dans notre vie quotidienne.
Peut-être devons-nous réveiller notre foi, reprendre le chemin de la prière, pardonner à quelqu'un, nous réconcilier avec un proche ou prendre davantage soin des personnes qui souffrent autour de nous.
Ne préparons pas seulement nos maisons pour Noël ; préparons surtout nos cœurs pour accueillir le Christ !
En ce premier dimanche de l'Avent, demandons au Seigneur de nous trouver éveillés dans la foi, actifs dans la charité et remplis d'espérance.
Car celui que nous attendons vient à notre rencontre !
Amen !

The generosity of the parishioners of St. Anne Parish allows us to reach out to people in our Brentwood/Bay Shore neighborhood who struggle every day to make ends meet.

Thank you to all who donate to our food pantry. During October 2026, we were happy to assist 327 families, 125 seniors, 434 adults and 311 children. We also helped 21 new families.

For Thanksgiving, we will be giving our pantry clients extra food for their Thanksgiving meal. We graciously accept any donated food items to help during this season of giving. For Thanksgiving, we need canned black beans, soups, pasta, juices, cereals, gravy, stuffing mix, chicken or turkey broth, snacks, cake mixes and pies. Gift cards for local grocery stores are also appreciated. If you would like to sponsor a family, please see the attached form. Please call our outreach office if you have any questions 631-339-7470.

Toiletries are always appreciated by our clients. Here are the items most needed: toilet paper, tissues, paper towels, shampoo, conditioner, body wash, soap, deodorant, toothpaste, diapers (size 4, 5 & 6), baby wipes, feminine hygiene products, pet food and laundry detergent.

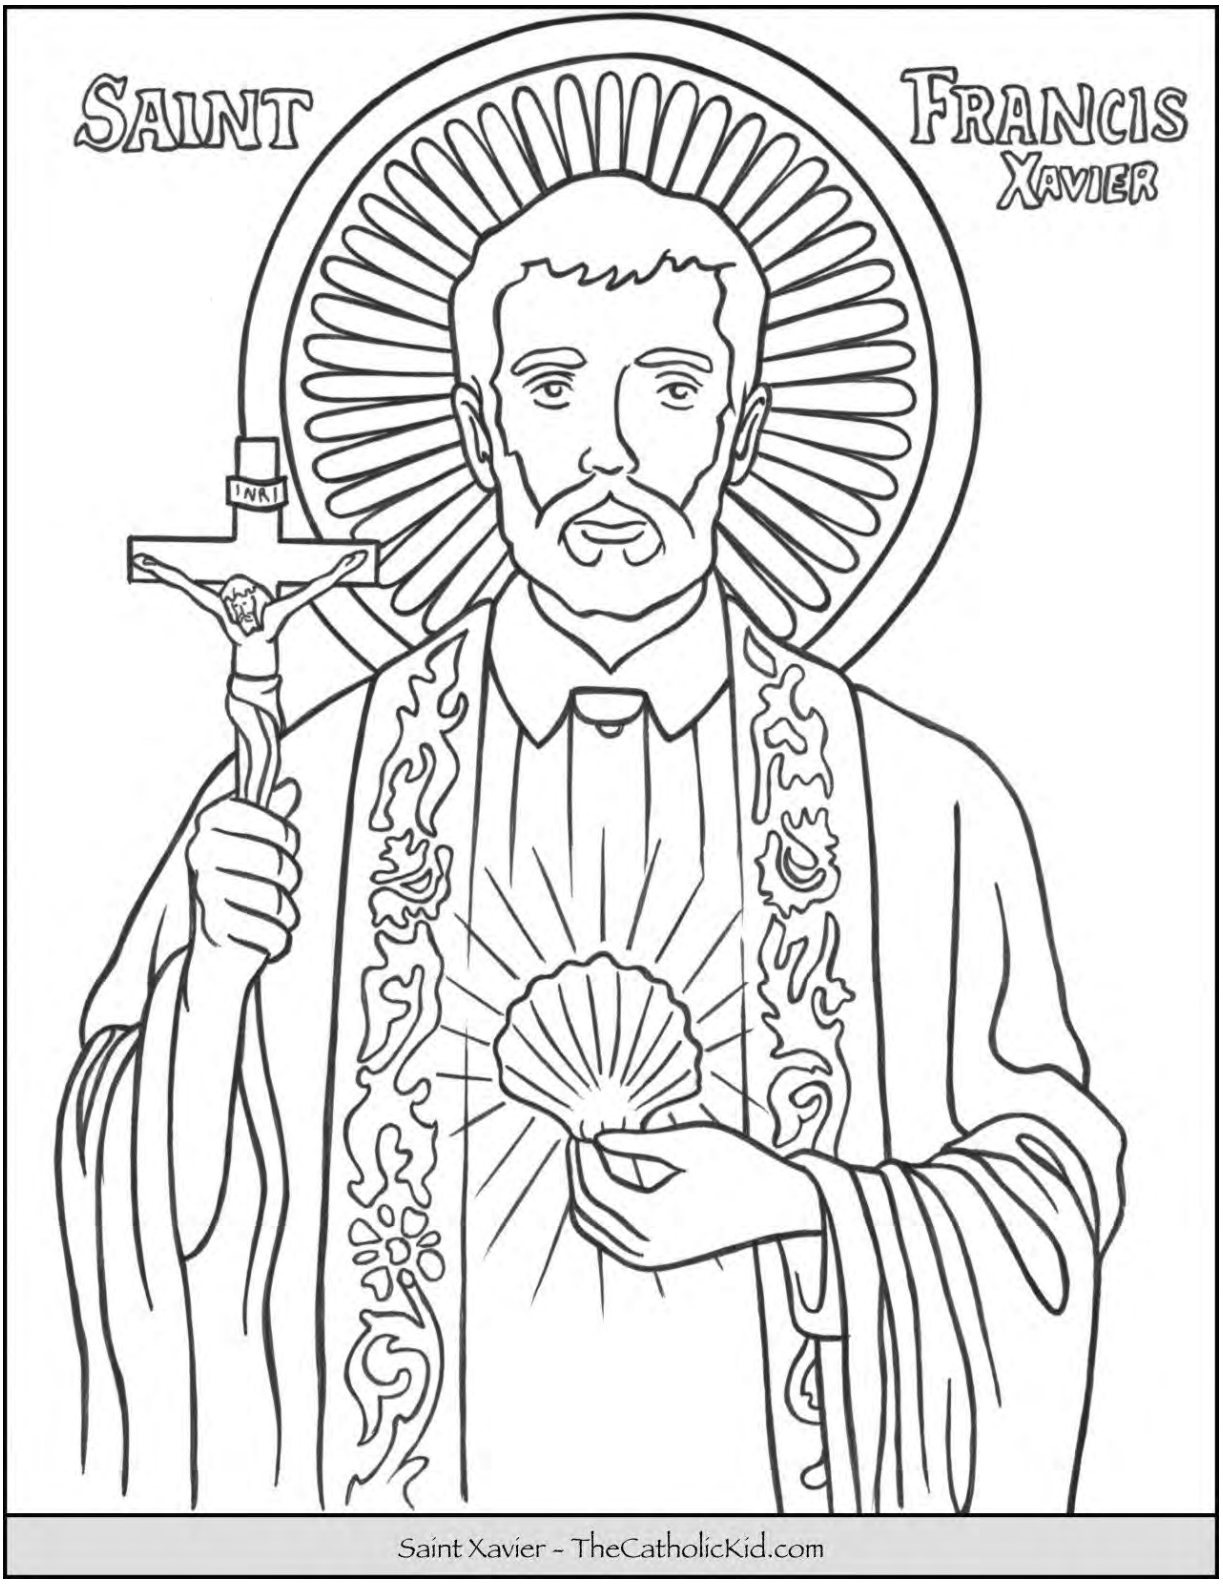

Thank you for caring for the poor in our parish community.
